

SuperYachtWorld

The global magazine for superya

MY CH
Firework dolphins: C tales from a
Atlante: Darin
On the w
New se

Brave new WORLD

In conversation with the owner of the 63-metre Benetti 11.11

TIME MACHINES

The best of the timepieces from the spring shows

MB&F HM6 SV

Just ten pieces each of the SV, the latest version of the HM6, are being produced in either platinum or red gold (above). The Art Deco-inspired creation features an engine with 475 components that has been in development for three years.

Price: From € 324,000.

www.mbandf.com

Frederique Constant Slimline Manufacture
Perpetual Calendar

After two years R&D and a brief to create a piece that is robust, reliable and easy to adjust, the latest from Frederique Constant has an engagingly classical look. The makers say the only manual correction in the next 400 years will be on March 1, 2100, which should be a leap year. Price: £7,480 (rose gold plate version). frederiqueconstant.com

Greubel Forsey
Double Balancier à Differential Constant

Greubel Forsey packs a huge amount of architecture into its friction and gravity-defying timepieces – in this case, two fabulous inclined balance wheels between the centrepiece Differential Spherique Constant. The first 33 pieces are in white gold. Price: On application. www.greubelforsey.com

Harry Winston
Midnight Diamonds Stalactites

With a beaded mother-of-pearl dial, Harry Winston's latest women's piece features runs of diamonds to recreate the appearance of stalactites. In all, 245 diamonds have been used on the dial and rose gold case. The mechanical movement can be seen through the back of the watch. Price: £26,100. www.harrywinston.com

Louis Moinet Memoris

A new engraving process has created the starry backdrop to the Memoris, the first of Louis Moinet's pieces commemorating the 200th anniversary of the chronometer. It's limited to 20 examples in white gold (there's a red gold version, too) and has a 48-hour power reserve. Price: CHF69,000. www.louismoinet.com

HYT H2 Tradition

The blue fluid hour marker is HYT's hydro-mechanical signature, but this is a watch that also acknowledges the traditional as well as the innovative. It is the first HYT with classic guilloché finishes and the balance has been realigned. It is limited to 50 pieces in a white gold case. Price: $179,000. www.2yatches.com

Hublot Spirit of Big Bang Bruce Lee
Be Water

Created to celebrate the birthday of the iconic martial arts performer, the Big Bang Bruce Lee is in a limited edition of 75 pieces, with a dragon pattern, a black micro-blasted ceramic case, and Hublot's automatic-winding skeletonised movement with a 50-hour power reserve. Price: €27,400. www.hublot.com

Parmigiani Bugatti
Super Sport Sapphire

With a movement that boasts 19 parts in red gold, there is plenty to show off on the latest Bugatti Super Sport, and a skeletonised structure and a case of translucent sapphire ensure the wearer gets to see it. Not for nothing do Parmigiani Fleurier describe this as 'an engine block for the wrist'. Price: On application. www.parmigiani.ch

Glashütte Original
Senator Chronometer

The 2016 incarnation of the Senator Chronometer features a lacquered and textured blue dial inspired by marine chronometers, with the chunky engraved Roman numerals adding a further traditional vibe. The strap is midnight blue Louisiana alligator leather. A sapphire case-back reveals the movement. Price: £21,300. www.glashuette-original.com